

Read the poem. Then answer each question.

Time for Everything

There's a time to run and a time to walk.

There's a time for silence and a time for talk.

There's a time for work and a time for play.

There's a time for sleep at the end of the day.

There's a time for everything you do,

For children and for grown-ups too.

A time to stand up and a time to sit,

But see that the time
and actions fit.

Questions:

1. Which word is the opposite of “a time for talk?”

2. When is it time for sleep?

3. Who has a time for everything they do?

4. What should time and actions do together?
