

Answers

Every morning, the sun rises in the east.

By the noon, the sun is high in the sky.

In the evening, the sun sets in the west.

At night, we cannot see the sun.

We see the moon instead.