Here Comes the Band

Here comes the band! Should we call Mommy and Fanny to see it?

Let us stand still and hear the men play as they pass.

I hope they will stop here and play for us.

See the large man in front of the band with his big hat?

What's he holding in his hand? How fine he looks!

Look at the man on that fine horse too.

If the men do not stop, let us follow them and see where they go.

Questions:

1. Who will they call to see the band?

---

2. What is the man in front wearing?

---

3. What is the other man riding?

---

4. What will we do if the band does not stop?

---
